

SUNDAY 27TH OCTOBER

EMITREMMUS DESREVER & EMIT LITE

Cycling UK Stevenage

Finale of 2019 Challenge Ride Series

It's been a great summer for cycling. Let's celebrate by riding our bikes on the day the clocks change. There's a choice of two rides.

All rides start at the entrance to Costello's in Fairlands Valley Park. They take in the beautiful countryside of Hertfordshire and Essex and include Dane End, Hare Street, Saffron Walden and Therfield.

The final event in the Challenge Ride series.

Entries cost £10 for both rides but there is a £2 reduction for Cycling UK members (£1 surcharge for online entries). To encourage you to enter online the cost will be £15 on the day.

The Stevenage Cycle Hub will be open nearby to purchase last minute inner tubes and other basic supplies.

Come and join a cycling celebration of the end of summertime.

Do you have any medical conditions that the race organisers should be aware of? Please note below

This event is not a race or trial of speed. You must follow the rules of the road and show consideration for other road users. The route is on open public roads, is not way-marked or marshalled, the organiser provides no rescue service. Familiarise yourself with the route and note that some routes may be arduous. We suggest carrying lights at all time but they will be required if there is a possibility of still riding in the evening or if the weather is inclement. There are minimum and maximum speeds for each ride which must be adhered to that are indicated in the relevant ride information. Full mudguards are optional but other riders will appreciate you using them.

I have read and understand the above and enclose my entry fee. (All entries on the day will be £15) Cheques should be payable to Cycling UK Stevenage. *If the reduced entry fee is paid, a Cycling UK membership number must be given. If you have not given an email address, please enclose a stamped addressed envelope.
